

2008 Artist Entry Information

This art exhibit and sale will take place in Napa, CA on Saturday, August 29, 2009.

This is not a Plein Air paint out nor is it a themed exhibit. It is an opportunity for artists to show and sell a variety of representational artwork created within the last year.

Jury Selection and Eligibility

- A jury consisting of artists Kevin Macpherson and Kathryn Stats and Jean Stern, Director of the Irvine Museum will select the 2009 participating artists.
- Selections are based on submitted digital images of work executed since January 1, 2008.
- Eligible artwork must be original representative oil paintings, water color, acrylic or pastel.
- No photography, prints, sculptures, glass, fiber, functional art, ceramics, charcoal/pencil drawings, reproductions, giclée, jewelry, woodwork or three dimensional art will be considered.

Event Requirements

- You will be provided with panels to display your artwork.
- Tents to shade you and your artwork will be provided.
- Set up begins at 8:00 and must be completed when the event opens at 10:00. The event will last until 4:00. Please be prepared to stay until this time.
- 40% of proceeds from the exhibition and sale will go to The Land Trust of Napa County (a nonprofit organization). Artists will retain 60%.
