Sing Tao is a local Chinese language newspaper. Their Expo celebrating Asian culture has been held at the San Mateo Expo Center and typically draws 30,000 attendees who pay an entrance fee and a parking fee. When Redwood City partnered with Sing Tao in August for the Olympic Telecast at Courthouse Square over 4,000 people attended. Sing Tao has wanted to hold a street fair and found working with the City of Redwood City to be very easy. In 2009 the event will be held on Broadway in downtown Redwood City and is expected to draw large crowds given its history and the fact that it's now free and is close to a CalTrain station.

The City of Redwood City has asked Art on the Square to provide an art component to the Sing Tao Street Fair. We will have close to 50 spaces along Broadway. The other vendors will be mainly Asian owned businesses; massage, herbs, home repair companies, non-profit groups, and others. It's a great opportunity to reach a new demographic.

Fine art & fine craft only All items sold must be created by the vendor. No buy and sell accepted. The artist must be present in their booth during the show(s).

Booths & displays Vendors must provide their own display set-up: booth, panels, tables, chair, etc.

Jury fee $5 per show.

Cancellations No refunds given for cancellations received less than 30 days prior to the date of the show.

Cancellations received 30 days or more prior to the date of the show will be refunded as follows:

10' x 10', $125 or 10' x 20', $250

Jurying We look for the highest quality work and strive to have a variety of media represented at each show.

Images Four color photos (min 4" x 6", max 8" x 12") of your current work and one color photo of your booth.

Checks One check for jury fee(s) and separate checks for each show requested made payable to Beth Mostovoy.

SASE (Self Addressed Stamped Envelope) large enough to hold checks and photos with correct postage. If not accepted, checks for shows requested and photos will be returned in your SASE. If accepted, photos will be returned the day of event.

Deadline: Postmarked by 3/20/09
